Remembering the Holy Souls November is a special month when we pray for the repose of the souls of the deceased members of our parish, families and friends. There is a box available in which you may wish to place the names of those for whom you would especially like Mass to be offered. The box will be placed in front of the Altar during each Holy Mass in November.

Please mark your calendars for a parish Christmas celebration on Sunday morning 6th December.

The Catholic Women's League are combining with the Social Club to host a Christmas Brunch/Lunchon following Mass.

The CWL will have their usual Christmas raffles and the profit from these will go to their missions and any surplus left over from the cost of the brunch/lunchon will go to wards purchasing a steriliser for the parish kitchen.

All are welcome and more details will follow soon.

CWL Christmas raffles—we would be grateful for donations of appropriate Christmas food and gifts for the raffles. We will start selling tickets from Sunday 15th November.
